These Prices (deduced upon the supposition that the dividends on the different Stocks are all payable at the same time) must be subject to some variation in favour of those Stocks upon which the Dividends soonest become due: for instance, a person making a purchase in September, had better buy into the new 3 per cents at 93 than into the 2½ per cents at 77½, because the Dividends on the former Stock become due in October, while those on the latter will not become due until the January following.—Nor must it be forgotten, that the possibility of a Reduction of Interest in some of these Securities, and of the paying off of others, considerably affect their Prices in the Market.

WEATHER TABLE.

The following Table, constructed upon philosophical considerations of the attraction of the Sun and Moon, in their several positions respecting the earth, and confirmed by experience of many years' actual observations, will in very few instances be found to fail.

THE TWO FOLLOWING OBSERVATIONS ARE FROM THE INGENIOUS DR. KIRWAN.

1. When there has been no particular storm about the time of the Spring equinox (March 21),—if a storm arise from the east on or before that day, or if a storm from any point of the compass arise near a week after the equinox, then, in either of these cases the succeeding summer is generally DRY, four times in five.
2. But if a storm arise from the S. W. or W. S. W. on or just before the Spring equinox, then the Summer following is generally wet, five times in six.

MEMORANDUMS, OBSERVATIONS, AND APPOINTMENTS,
In January, 1859.

1 JANUARY. 2 Lucia - 1 Fleming Another year gone - with an unusual amount of additional trouble and care.
Will there be a change for the better this year? Heaven alone knows. Meanwhile there is much I certainly ought to be thankful for - The important Crisis for my elder daughter happily past; the successfully achieved Return of my younger Children - the Entering into active life of my Son - are all Events which ought to encourage and cheer me.
I trust also, that the Arrangements concluded with regard to Alice will lead to her future Welfare - and happiness in life. I feel rather more disposed - to console - than for some time past. Some more genial consolation than teaching seems also looming in the distance. Qui vivra - vivra - I feel very happy - with Georgina and Alice To the Godards in the morning. I played them my Scotch Fantasia - (on Alto Robin Gray and a Reel) with which Miss Arabella seemed very much pleased.
Belletti - Mr. Greville. Threatening Clouds in the political Horizon - Austria and France have fallen out - Movements in Italy foreboding an outbreak? soon or later.
Louis Napoleon's ~~significant~~ Attitude to the Austrian Minister M. de Habera - All again darkened and gloomy - Alas for human hopes and expectations. We shall now be at the End of our troubles - until this miserable farce - called Life - is played out. - Written to Messrs Messrs Dr. Worth & Co. about my Claims against the late Lady Hastings, and the heirs Alice ^{with} much anxiety. May our temporary separation lead to her improvement and future welfare. - Poor Georgina will feel very lonely without her Sister
